ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS.

FIRST METHOD.

LATIN.—Harkness', Allen and Greenough's, or Gildersleeve's Grammar, including prosody: Harkness' Latin Prose Composition, Part II., or an equivalent: Seven Orations of Cicero, including the Pro Lege Manilia: the first six books of the Æneid: the Bucolics and the first two Georgics of Virgil, or an equal number of lines in Ovid: the Catilinarian war of Sallust, or four books of Cæsar: Tozer's Roman Geography and Wilkins' Roman Antiquities. Translation of easy Latin at sight.

GREEK.—Crosby's, Hadley's, or Goodwin's Greek Grammar: twenty exercises in Jones' Greek Prose Composition: four Books of Xenophon's Anabasis, or one hundred pages of Goodwin's Greek Reader: three Books of Homer's Iliad: Greek History, to the death of Alexander: Tozer's Classical Geography.

MATHEMATICS.—Arithmetic, including the Metric System: Algebra, to Quadratic Equations: four Books of Loomis' Geometry.

ENGLISH.—Whitney's Essentials of English Grammar: Orthography: Modern Geography.

FRENCH.—Keetels' Elementary Grammar.

SECOND METHOD.

LATIN.—1. Cæsar's Gallic War, Books I.—IV. (or Books I.—III. and Sallust's Catiline); Cicero's Orations against Catiline and for Archias, with questions on the subject matter and on grammar; Virgil's Æneid, Books I.—VI. (or Eclogues and Æneid, Books I.—V.), with questions on the subject matter and on prosody.

2. Translation at sight of average passages from Cæsar, Cicero's Orations, the Æneid, and Ovid's Metamorphoses with general questions on grammar, prosody, history and antiquities suggested by the prescribed passages.

3. Translation into Latin of a passage of connected English narrative based upon some portion of the prescribed prose; Outlines of Roman Geography, and Roman History to the death of Marcus Aurelius.

GREEK.—Translation at sight of average passages in the Anabasis and in the Iliad (the candidate being supplied with a vocabulary of the less usual words); Outlines of the Geography of Greece, and Greek History to the death of Alexander.

MATHEMATICS.—Arithmetic, with the Metric System; Algebra through Quadratic Equations, including Radical Quantities, together with Proportion, Arithmetical and Geometrical Progressions, and the Binomial Theorem for positive integral exponents; Plane Geometry.

ENGLISH.—1. A short composition, correct in spelling, punctuation, division into paragraphs, grammar and expression, on a theme given at the time of examination.

2. Criticism of specimens of incorrect English.

FRENCH.—Keetels' Elementary Grammar.

At the examination in 1881 the candidate may select either of the two methods of examination. After 1881 the second method only will be used.

Full equivalents will be accepted instead of the text books named, but Greek and Latin prose will not be received as a substitute for poetry.

Candidates for advanced standing are examined in the requirements for admission to the College, and also in the studies which have been pursued by the class they wish to enter. For the particular books in Greek, Latin, or Modern Languages studied by each class, equivalent amounts may be offered from other books in the same language.

Candidates for admission to the Scientific Course will not be examined in Greek, nor in the Georgics and Bucolics of Virgil.

The examination for admission begins at 9 o'clock, A. M., on Thursday of the week preceding Commencement and on the last Tuesday of the summer vacation (June 23rd and September 6th, 1881), and, at each time, the examinations will continue two days. Those who apply for examination on these days, should present themselves punctually at the appointed hour, at Walker Hall.

Before examination, the candidate must exhibit satisfactory testimonials of good moral character. If he has been a member of any other College, he must present a certificate of regular dismissal.

No one can be admitted to the Freshman Class until he has completed his fifteenth year, and no one to an advanced standing without a corresponding increase of age.

Candidates for admission, who remain conditioned after the September examination, or receive conditions at that time, will be required to study under a teacher authorized by the examiners, and a small fee will be charged. It is, therefore, desirable that as many as possible present themselves at the June examination, that they may have an opportunity to cancel any conditions then received, in September.

Students entitled to admission on certificates in Latin and Greek must pass the regular entrance examinations at the time specified in the catalogue, if they wish to be candidates for the Porter Prize.

Information in relation to rooms or boarding places may be obtained by applying to the College Janitor, Lansford Gates, No. 20 North College.

SCIENTIFIC COURSE.

The general course is so arranged, that a four years' Scientific Course is formed by omitting the Greek entirely, and substituting advanced work in Science and Modern Languages, as indicated in the schedule of studies on the last page. The degree of Bachelor of Science is conferred on any student who has satisfactorily completed this course.

PARTIAL COURSE.

Persons who are unable to pursue the course required for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, are admitted to the privileges of the Institution and permitted to carry forward such studies as they may select, when approved by the Faculty. At the end of the course, a certificate of their attainments will be given on application to the President.

RESIDENT GRADUATES.

Graduates who wish to pursue a more extended course of study in any department can do so by making arrangements with the College for that purpose.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS.

Candidates for the degree of Master of Arts in course must be graduates of at least three years' standing and must have spent at least two years in professional or other liberal studies. In ordinary cases they must be recommended by the Faculty. Graduates who wish to obtain this degree should send their request to the Faculty, with appropriate vouchers, on or before the twenty-second day of June.

EXERCISES.

There are either three Recitations, or two Recitations and two Lectures daily, excepting Wednesday and Saturday, when one Recitation is omitted.

There are also weekly rhetorical exercises for each class. From the Seniors and Juniors, compositions, original declamations, and debates, are required; from the Sophomores and Freshmen, written abstracts, and declamations. For the declamations, preparation is made by private rehearsal.

Public worship is held in the College Church every Sunday, and there are prayers in the Chapel every week-day morning. Every Thursday evening there is preaching or some other religious exercise, which the students are invited to attend. There are class prayer-meetings regularly on Sunday evenings.

EXAMINATIONS.

As unfitness in deportment or in scholarship is only determined by the actual deficiencies of a student, a correct record will be kept of his attendance and work. Such recitations and reviews will be held during each term in the work assigned for the term, as will give every student the opportunity to show fairly whether he has sufficiently mastered the study to warrant his proceeding in the prescribed course of the class. If he has been present at nine-tenths of the exercises of his class in a given department of study, and if his attainment therein shall be satisfactory to his teacher, he shall be deemed qualified, without further examination, to proceed with the work of the next term.

LIBRARIES.

The Libraries of the College and the Literary Societies contain about forty-two thousand volumes. The College Library and Reading Room are open every day (Sundays and Holidays excepted), from nine to half-past eleven o'clock, A. M., and from half-past one to four o'clock, P. M. Books of reference may be consulted at any hour when the Reading Room is open. The Libraries of the two Literary Societies have been incorporated with that of the College, but are accessible only to members of the societies. The Social Union Reading Room, No. 1 North College, is open every day except Sunday.

APPARATUS FOR MATHEMATICAL AND PHYSICAL SCIENCE.

The LAWRENCE OBSERVATORY, consisting of a transit room, and a tower with a revolving dome, is furnished with instruments for accurate astronomical observations. The pier in the center of the tower sustains a refracting telescope, mounted equatorially, having a focal length of nine feet and an aperture of seven and one-fourth inches. The transit room contains a transit circle, clock and chronograph, for meridian observations. The observatory also contains an altitude and azimuth instrument, and instruments of the latest and best construction, for surveying and engineering.

The collection of Apparatus for Experiments in Natural Philosophy is extensive, and well adapted for a course of experimental illustrations. It occupies a room in the second story of WALKER HALL, where ample accommodations are furnished for its arrangement and use.

The Chemical Laboratory and Lecture Room occupy the first story of WILLISTON HALL. These rooms are furnished with apparatus for a complete course of chemical experiments.

CABINETS OF NATURAL HISTORY.

The specimens illustrating Natural History and Human Antiquities, are deposited in the three buildings known as the Woods Cabinet, the Appleton Cabinet, and Walker Hall.

The WOODS CABINET is named in honor of the Hon. Josiah B. Woods, of Enfield, its principal donor. It contains all the Geological Collections of the College, consisting of the general American and European Collections, the State Survey Collections of New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts and Connecticut, and the Shepard Meteorite Collection, comprising in all above 25,000 specimens. An adjoining room, called the Nineveh Gallery, built by Enos Dickinson, of Amherst, contains specimens obtained by Dr. Henry Lobdell from the ruins of ancient Nineveh and Babylon. It exhibits sculptured slabs from the palace walls of Sardanapalus at Nimroud, and many antique coins, seals, and cylinders from the same cities.

In the APPLETON CABINET, named from the Hon. Samuel Appleton, of Boston, are the Hitchcock Ichnological Collection, the Gilbert Museum of Indian Relics, and the Adams Zoölogical Collection.

In the Ichnological Collection, named after President Hitchcock, are to be found about 1,400 specimens, containing at least 20,000 tracks of animals, in stone, together with plaster and clay casts of tracks of living and extinct species of animals. The Museum of Indian Relics receives its name from the Hon. George H. Gilbert, of Ware, by whose liberality it was mainly established. It comprises about 3,500 specimens of the stone implements of extinct Indian tribes, principally those who lived in the Connecticut Valley. The Zoölogical Collection was principally gathered and arranged by Professor Charles B. Adams. It comprises prepared specimens of animals and their habitations, and dried plants, representing all the great groups of the animal and vegetable kingdoms. In the department of shells it is particularly extensive and valuable. A Collection in Comparative Osteology has been commenced, and is incorporated with this collection.

WALKER HALL is named in honor of Dr. William J. Walker, its principal donor. The third story contains the Shepard Mineralogical Collection, consisting of more than 10,000 specimens; also a collection of plants, and mineralogical apparatus.

The collections arranged in these several cabinets contain more than 100,000 specimens of the animal, mineral and vegetable kingdoms.

The cabinets are open to the public each week-day, from ten to eleven o'clock, A. M., and from three to four o'clock, P. M., when the custodians will be in attendance.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.

The BARRETT GYMNASIUM, named in honor of Dr. Benjamin Barrett, of Northampton, is open to the members of the College for voluntary exercise, and at an appointed hour each class is required to be present and engage in exercise under the direction of the Professor of Hygiene. Attention to the requirements in this department has its share in determining the standing of the student in College. The required exercises consist almost entirely of the light gymnastics, the movements of which are guided and timed by music, while the heavy and more difficult gymnastic work is entirely at the option of the student. No effort is required of any student which cannot be safely and profitably undertaken by any person who is sound in body and mind.

The Professor in this department is a physician, and, as far as possible, is expected to be acquainted with the physical condition of each student in town during term-time. All students are permitted to consult him without charge.

GALLERY OF ART.

This room contains a large and choice collection of casts of ancient and modern statuary. The gallery is open to the public each week day, at the same hours as the Scientific Collections.

EXPENSES.

The following are the principal necessary expenses, exclusive of vacations:

General Term Bill, including Tuition, Library, Gymnasium, and all ordinary incidentals,
per year,	$100.00	$100.00
Room Rent in College, from $6.00 to $15.00 per term,	18.00	45.00
Room Rent in private houses, per year,	40.00	60.00
Fuel and Lights, from $12.00 to $18.00,	12.00	18.00
Board from $3.00 to $5.00 per week, or per year of thirty-eight weeks ,	114.00	190.00

An additional expense of $10.00 per term is incurred by those students who elect work in the Chemical Laboratory during the Junior year.

The expenses for Room Rent, Fuel and Lights, are estimated on the supposition that two students occupy the same room. For a few choice rooms, both in College and in town, a higher rent is charged.

There are some expenses which result from taxes voluntarily imposed by the classes or societies. These, and expenses for furniture, stationery, etc. will vary according to circumstances and the character and habits of the student.

PAYMENTS.

One-half of the annual charges is due on the first of October, and is to be paid within two weeks thereafter. The balance becomes due April 15th, and is to be paid before May 1st.

A bond, with satisfactory surety for the payment of all the College bills, must be given by each student to the Treasurer, at the commencement of the term when he enters.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The College has a fund of seventy-five thousand dollars, the income of which is appropriated to young men who are preparing for the Christian ministry, and need assistance. Forty such students can each receive a scholarship sufficient to cancel the general Term Bill. Each of these students ordinarily obtains from the American Education Society also about one hundred dollars annually.

Scholarships have been founded by the State of Massachusetts, by individuals, and by College classes. These endowments are intended to assist those who need pecuniary aid, and most of them are designed only for those of superior scholarship. The names of the donors, and the annual incomes of their respective gifts, are as follows:—
